A homage to all the women who make magic with their stoves

We are convinced that we all have a DORITA to pay homage to.

Casa Dorita's Story

Casa Dorita is a humble tribute to all the determined and passionate women who proved they had the gift of making magic with their stoves. Strong, brave, enterprising, and creative women. Who filled their homes with indelible smells and feelings that will last forever. They are the reason why Casa Dorita opened its doors with the aim of immersing you once again in the magical performance which is cooking. Cooking based on simplicity: because if the product is excellent, it must be respected and simply accompanied: dressed with a touch of innovation to make it a unique dish. This is how the Dorita of my family did it, my great-grandmother, who excelled at energetically making magic in the kitchen, dazzling anyone who came by as she cooked.

By chance, a few meters from where our little cellar stands today, another Dorita, the famous Bella Dorita who in her golden years was a fabulous cabaret star on the Paral·lel, charmed her public with another equally fiery art. To her also, she who shared her name and determinedness, womanliness, and artistry with my great-grandmother, we dedicate our story.

We are convinced that we all have a DORITA to pay homage to.
